FAIRY BARGAINS

Good bargain prices

- A song sung at sunset.
- A promise to return a lost thing.
- A drawing of the creature as a friend.
- One shiny button, not a memory.
- A day of helping clean a path.

Never take

- A real child's name, voice, or memory.
- Anything that makes a player feel trapped.
- A choice the adventurer cannot understand.

Safe bargain rule: bargains are story hooks, not punishments. They should create a future scene, not remove agency.
