

ADVENTURES IN ALBA

Alba Atlas — Regions, clan lands, fairy courts, Norse sea routes, Dominion border, towns, dungeons, and legends

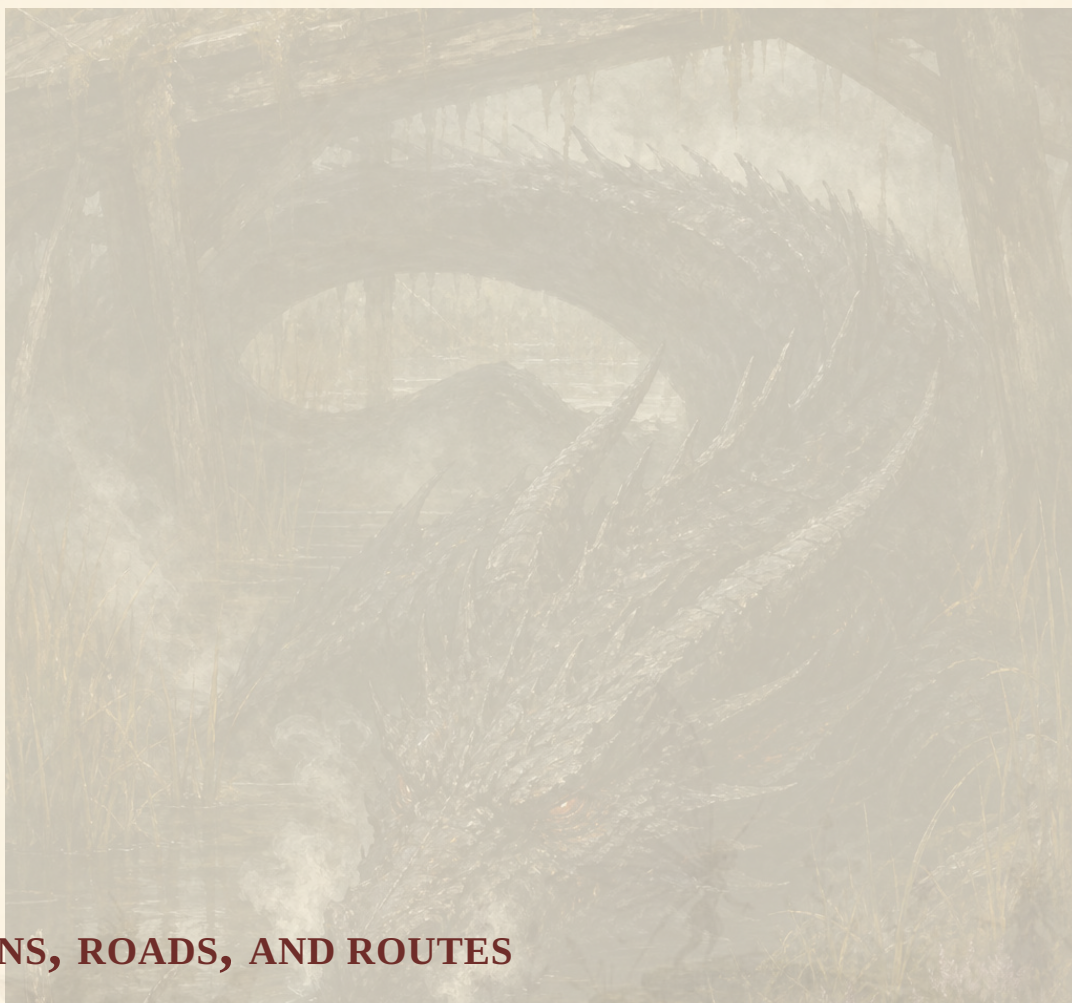

ADVENTURES IN ALBA

Scottish fairy myth, classic fantasy adventure, gentle danger, and table rules made for brave Adventurers.

ATLAS MAP OF ALBA

Use as a living map; name places when Adventurers discover them.

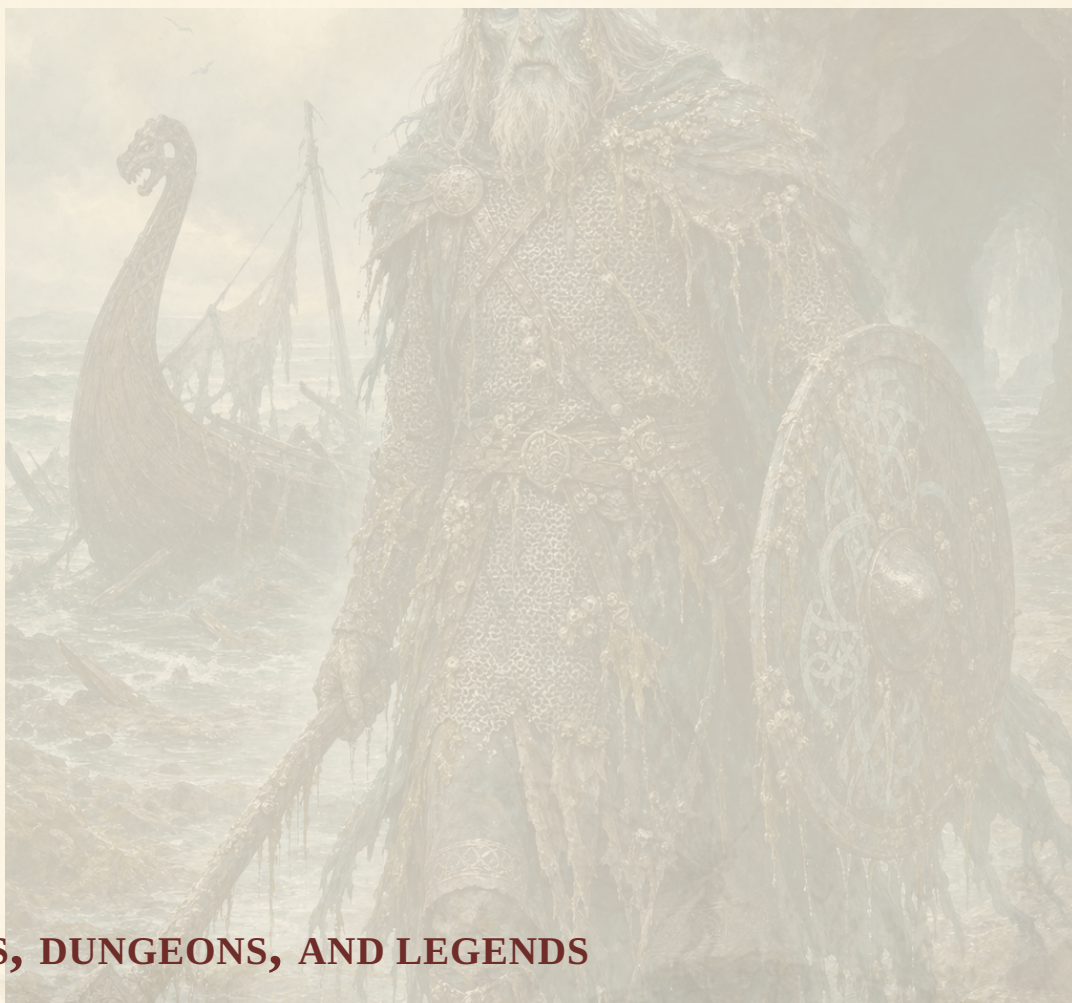

REGIONS, ROADS, AND ROUTES

Place	Look	Hooks
Heatherhigh Hills	purple slopes, cairns, storm goats	oath ghosts, giant crowns, clan challenges
Glass Loch	moon water, kelp paths, seal songs	selkie bargains, serpent bridges, drowned bells
Northern Whale-Road	mist, longships, black rocks	trade, raids, draugr oaths
Red Banner Border	forts, roads, tax chains	Albion patrols, false maps, freed wargs
Thistlewood	brambles, fairy doors, fox tracks	redcaps, lost paths, court bargains

FACTIONS AND REPUTATION

Faction	Wants	Reputation reward
Rowan Compact	promises remembered	safe fairy passage
Storm-Clans	respect, guest-right, returned cauldron	shelter and cairn goat hook
Norse Sea-Kin	trade, honor, settled oaths	ship passage and rune repairs
Dominion of Albion	taxes, maps, obedience	villain faction; defectors can help
Thorn Court	pranks, bargains, old laws	charms with exact promises

TOWNS, DUNGEONS, AND LEGENDS

Kettleford

Bridge town with toll bells, goat laws, and a market that moves in rain.

Alba-Brae

Warm village with crooked clocktower and a guild of useful string.

Root Warrens

Dungeon under Thistlewood: jam doors, mice, bells, redcap tunnels.

Storm Cairn

Old burial hill where thunder answers broken promises.

Loch Shrine

Moon-water shrine watched by selkies and glass serpents.

Red Wall Fort

Dominion border fort with tax-magic and nervous local guides.
