

ADVENTURES IN ALBA

Treasure and Crafting — Magic items, potions, mythral gear, fairy bargains, and recipes

ADVENTURES IN ALBA

Scottish fairy myth, classic fantasy adventure, gentle danger, and table rules made for brave Adventurers.

TREASURE TIERS

Tier	Coin range	Examples
Copper	1–9 cp	chalk, snack, candle, ribbon.
Silver	1–9 sp	rope, lantern, padded cloak.
Gold	1–9 gp	spell charm, fine tool, fairy favor.
Mythral	1+ mp	legendary seed, moon key, named blade that refuses cruelty.

Copper treasure

Three blue buttons, a candle stub, and a biscuit wrapped in wax paper.

Silver treasure

A sturdy rope, a good lantern, or a map drawn by a fox.

Gold treasure

A named charm, guild favor, or one spell scroll.

Mythral treasure

A story-changing object that asks for a promise before it works.

Conversion: 10 copper = 1 silver, 10 silver = 1 gold, 100 gold = 1 mythral.

FAIRY BARGAINS

Good bargain prices

- A song sung at sunset.
- A promise to return a lost thing.
- A drawing of the creature as a friend.
- One shiny button, not a memory.
- A day of helping clean a path.

Never take

- A real adventurer's true name, voice, or memory.
- Anything that makes a player feel trapped.
- A choice the adventurer cannot understand.

Safe bargain rule: bargains are story hooks, not punishments. They should create a future scene, not remove agency.

MAGIC ITEM CATALOGUE

Magic items in Alba are named, opinionated, and tied to promises. Even simple relics should change a scene or create a hook.
