

Alba Regional Map

Alba Regional Map

HEATHERHIGH HILLS

Location in wider Alba

West-central Alba above Kettleford, between Storm Cairn and the old goat roads.

Factions

Storm-Clans, cairn goats, oath poets, hidden Rowan Compact messengers.

History or folklore

Thunder is said to be old chiefs arguing until someone remembers the exact promise.

Adventure hooks

lost goat bell; oath ghost; storm-clan fair challenge; mythral spring rumor

Local table

d6	Discovery
1	A friendly local asks for help before danger appears.
2	A faction mark points to a secret path.
3	Old folklore explains a safe solution.
4	Weather changes the route.
5	A pet or mount notices the real clue.
6	A reward becomes tomorrow’s notice-board quest.

GLASS LOCH

Location in wider Alba

Northern lowlands where moon-water gathers beneath seal roads and kelp paths.

Factions

Selkie families, kelpie foals, loch herbalists, glass serpent guardians.

History or folklore

The loch reflects not faces but promises; a liar sees an empty sky.

Adventure hooks

moon-bell rescue; underwater shrine; serpent bridge; stolen seal-cloak

Local table

d6	Discovery
1	A friendly local asks for help before danger appears.
2	A faction mark points to a secret path.
3	Old folklore explains a safe solution.
4	Weather changes the route.
5	A pet or mount notices the real clue.
6	A reward becomes tomorrow's notice-board quest.

Glass Loch

NORTHERN WHALE-ROAD

Location in wider Alba

Cold sea lanes and skerries north of Skerryvik harbor.

Factions

Norse Sea-Kin, draugr oath-raiders, whale singers, harbor traders.

History or folklore

Blue lanterns mark ships whose crews still owe one last kindness.

Adventure hooks

empty longship; ghost oars; feast-right bargain; storm-knot duel

Local table

d6	Discovery
1	A friendly local asks for help before danger appears.
2	A faction mark points to a secret path.
3	Old folklore explains a safe solution.
4	Weather changes the route.
5	A pet or mount notices the real clue.
6	A reward becomes tomorrow's notice-board quest.

Northern Whale-Road

Red Banner Border

Location in wider Alba

Southern forts, tax roads, and measured fields where Albion pushes north.

Factions

Dominion officials, defecting guides, Redcloak patrols, freed border wargs.

History or folklore

The red banner steals place-names first; people vanish only after maps are changed.

Adventure hooks

tax charm; false map; iron collar; banner true-name ritual

Local table

d6	Discovery
1	A friendly local asks for help before danger appears.
2	A faction mark points to a secret path.
3	Old folklore explains a safe solution.
4	Weather changes the route.
5	A pet or mount notices the real clue.
6	A reward becomes tomorrow’s notice-board quest.

Thistlewood

Location in wider Alba

Eastern fairy wood between Alba-Brae and the hidden Thorn Court gates.

Factions

Thorn Court, redcaps, fox guides, brownie helpers, myceling scouts.

History or folklore

Every bramble has a door, but only polite knockers learn which door is theirs.

Adventure hooks

redcap bargain; moving road; fox map; tiny court trial

Local table

d6	Discovery
1	A friendly local asks for help before danger appears.
2	A faction mark points to a secret path.
3	Old folklore explains a safe solution.
4	Weather changes the route.
5	A pet or mount notices the real clue.
6	A reward becomes tomorrow’s notice-board quest.

CAULDRON PASS

Location in wider Alba

High northern pass from lowland farms to Queen Maev’s storm-clan halls.

Factions

Storm-clans, Queen Maev, Albion spies, cairn wights.

History or folklore

A stolen feast cauldron can make a whole valley forget guest-right.

Adventure hooks

returned cauldron; fair duel; ancestor story; pass of two banners

Local table

d6	Discovery
1	A friendly local asks for help before danger appears.
2	A faction mark points to a secret path.
3	Old folklore explains a safe solution.
4	Weather changes the route.
5	A pet or mount notices the real clue.
6	A reward becomes tomorrow’s notice-board quest.

Cauldron Pass

KETTLEFORD

Location in wider Alba

Home-base bridge town on the road between loch, hills, woods, and border.

Factions

Toll-keepers, market aunties, bridge spirits, young adventurers.

History or folklore

The bridge was built by a giant child who wanted everyone to get home dry.

Adventure hooks

notice board; toll bell; market mystery; grumpy bridge

Local table

d6	Discovery
1	A friendly local asks for help before danger appears.
2	A faction mark points to a secret path.
3	Old folklore explains a safe solution.
4	Weather changes the route.
5	A pet or mount notices the real clue.
6	A reward becomes tomorrow’s notice-board quest.

Root Warrens

Location in wider Alba

Dungeon tangle under Thistlewood, full of jam doors, mouse paths, and bell roots.

Factions

Redcaps, rowan mice, root goblins, Buttonroot elders.

History or folklore

Roots remember every footstep and repeat rude words until someone apologises.

Adventure hooks

lost crumbs; jam lock; redcap tunnel; bedtime song root

Local table

d6	Discovery
1	A friendly local asks for help before danger appears.
2	A faction mark points to a secret path.
3	Old folklore explains a safe solution.
4	Weather changes the route.
5	A pet or mount notices the real clue.
6	A reward becomes tomorrow's notice-board quest.

Root Warrens